

New County 4-H Leader Course Questionnaire B

Name _____ Date _____

Address _____ City _____ St _____ Zip _____

Phone #_(____)_____ email address _____

Club _____

Please circle the correct answer:

1. What is the second largest youth educational program in the United States?
 - a. boys and girls clubs?
 - b. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts
 - c. 4-H
 - d. public schools

2. What is the foundation of the 4-H program?
 - a. school enrichment clubs
 - b. special interest clubs
 - c. club work and activities
 - d. state and national events

3. What is the 4-H philosophy about youth development?
 - a. it's better to have a blue ribbon kid with a red ribbon project
 - b. it's better to have a blue ribbon project with a red ribbon kid
 - c. keep the kid on the farm
 - d. just do it

4. Who provides the structure, educational environment, and leadership in a 4-H club?
 - a. members
 - b. parents
 - c. leaders
 - d. extension office

5. Which type of club offers a number of projects to choose from, tends to have more members and leaders, and offers more expertise, stability and the opportunity to share leadership roles?
 - a. project club
 - b. community club
 - c. resource club
 - d. activity club

6. Which type of leader teaches specific 4-H project material?
 - a. activity leader
 - b. project leader
 - c. resource leader
 - d. organizational leader

7. Who are the best recruiters for 4-H members?
 - a. club leaders
 - b. parents
 - c. club members
 - d. Garfield

8. What provides project information, teaching methods, and learning activities?
 - a. leader's manual
 - b. county fair book
 - c. the latest Harry Potter book
 - d. enrollment packet

9. What is a child centered approach?
 - a. learning by doing
 - b. the program focuses on the child's needs and interests
 - c. goal setting and decision making for the club
 - d. all of the above

10. Most learners retain _____ % of what they say and do?
 - a. 10%
 - b. 20%
 - c. 50%
 - d. 90%

11. Which age group needs more encouragement, lots of praise, warmth and patience, needs to channel children's enthusiasm and interest, give responsibilities without pressure or extensive decisions; children are concerned about fairness and are more interested in the activity than the end result?
 - a. 6-8 years old
 - b. 9-11 years old
 - c. 12-14 years old
 - d. 15-19 years old

12. Which age group has a longer attention span, is trying to understand their rapid changes, need to feel they belong and are accepted by their own age and sex group, are eager to try new things, want experiences to be meaningful, enjoy community service projects, are idealistic about society, are better planners, and may need more guidance and encouragement to carry out plans; leaders should decisions and rules and live within those boundaries?
 - a. 6-8 years old
 - b. 9-11 years old
 - c. 12-14 years old
 - d. 15-19 years old

13. 4-H leaders receive permission to use the 4-H clover when?
 - a. they call the extension office and inquire about becoming a 4-H leader
 - b. he/she attend their first 4-H club meeting
 - c. they sign a 4-H leader enrollment card and submit it to the County Extension Office
 - d. he/she completes the 4-H Leader initiation
14. The 4-H youth program uses which type of learning technique most often?
 - a. lecturing to kids
 - b. doing projects (learning by doing)
 - c. watching videos
 - d. reading project manuals
15. Which activities provide experience for learning?
 - a. role playing
 - b. community service
 - c. completing projects
 - d. all of the above
16. What do the four H's stand for in the pledge?
 - a. Head, Heart, Helping, Horses
 - b. Head, Heart, Hands, Health
 - c. Helping, Health, Homework, Heart
 - d. Headaches, Heartburn, Hemorrhoids, Hiccups
17. Which of the following are signs of physical abuse?
 - a. unexplained bruises (in various stage of healing), welts, human bite marks, bald spots
 - b. unexplained burns, especially cigarette burns or immersion burns (glove like
 - c. unexplained fractures, lacerations, or abrasions
 - d. all of the above
18. Which of the following two answers list symptoms of sexual abuse?
 - a. distended stomach
 - b. excessive seductiveness and touching
 - c. consistent hunger
 - d. pain or itching in genital area
19. Who administers the county 4-H program?
 - a. the Extension Office Secretary
 - b. the Junior Leader Club President
 - c. 4-H Council President
 - d. extension 4-H agents

20. The 4-H Program is the official youth program of Colorado State Cooperative Extension. Cooperative Extension is a partnership between what three governmental agencies?
- United States Department of Agriculture(USDA), Colorado State University, and your local county government
 - Unites States Department of Health and Human Services, University of Colorado, and your local city government
 - Your city government, your county government, and the United Way
 - Disney World, University of Denver, and your local Parks and Recreation Department
21. What should you do when a child tells you they are being abused?
- promise confidentiality
 - believe the child, find a private place to talk and let them know you must make a report
 - ask leading questions
 - investigate the problem
22. When did the 4-H Program begin?
- 1945
 - 1902
 - 1914
 - 1950
23. Besides the 4-H youth Program, what other educational programs does Cooperative Extension offer?
- Agriculture and Natural resources, Horticulture, Consumer and Family Sciences, Low Income Foods and Nutrition Programs
 - Boy and Girl Scouts programs
 - Soil Conversation Programs
 - Agriculture and Natural Resources, Horticulture, Consumer and Family Sciences
24. How old does a member during the current 4-H year need to be by what date to be a Senior member?
- 17 by Sept. 1st
 - 17 by Jan. 1st
 - 14 by Oct. 1st
 - 14 by Jan. 1st
25. What does a 4-H member need to do to complete the year.
- exhibit at the County Fair or another public event, complete a record book, participate in a public speaking or judging activity, and participate in a community service project
 - attend County Fair
 - complete a record book, participate in a public speaking or judging activity and complete a community service project
 - show the results of the project work at a County Fair, Club Meeting or other public gathering and complete a community service project