Beginning Chinese

June 16- July 3, 2008

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. MTWRF

- Learn a semester's worth of material in 3 weeks.
- Earn 5 credits.
- Benefit from a dedicated, experienced professor: Chuchang Chiu
- Receive information on how to retain what you've gained.

L180 is a 3-week beginning intensive course designed to introduce students to a foreign culture through the development of basic skills in the language. Students engage in conversations, obtain information, and express feelings and opinions. Instructors create an immersion experience through situations that resemble real life in China / Taiwan. Coursework is enhanced with multimedia materials, one-on-one work with conversation partners, and trips to local centers, museums, restaurants, etc.

Registration starts in March 2008
